INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

The style and format of your contribution must strictly adhere to the instructions detailed here. Please liaise closely with the Editor regarding the title, content and emphasis of your chapter.

Copyright

By submitting a manuscript to the editor or publisher you are deemed to have granted permission to publish the manuscript. You will also be required to assign copyright to the publisher. You are strongly advised not to use any figure or table that has been published previously. If you do, you must provide a "Permissions Form" signed by the original publisher. The signed form must be enclosed with your manuscript. You can download a copy of this form from: <http://www.horizonpress.com/authors>

Size

Please adhere to the instructions of the Editor regarding the size of your contribution. If no specific indication of size has been given, each chapter should be a maximum of 20,000 words plus a maximum of six figures or tables.

English

Manuscripts must be in perfect English. If English is not your first language please have your work corrected by someone who has English as their first language.

Title

The title of your contribution will be agreed with the Editor.

Running title

Please supply a running title of no more than 50 characters.

Abstract

Each chapter must include an abstract. Abstracts should be 100-200 words.

Headings

Figures

We accept Powerpoint, Photoshop, Word, EPS, or high quality JPEG. Ensure that the files are saved at highest quality possible (highest dpi). Figure legends should be supplied in the main text file.

Colour Figures

Colour figures can only be accepted if the cost of reproduction is borne by the authors.

Tables

Number (Table 1, etc) in order of mention in the text.

References

References should be cited in the text in parentheses in order of date, as follows (Sambrook et al., 1989; Fuller, 1999). The reference list should be in alphabetical order. Follow the style indicated:

Article in a journal:

Altschul, S.F., Gish, W., Miller, W., Myers, E.W., and Lipman, D.J. (1990). Basic local alignment search tool. J. Mol. Biol. 215, 403-410.

Chapter in a book:

Fuller, R. (1999). Probiotics for farm animals. In Probiotics: A Critical Review, G.W. Tannock, ed. (Wymondham, UK: Horizon Scientific Press), pp. 15-22.

An entire book:

Sambrook, J., Fritsch, E.F., and Maniatis, T. (1989). Molecular Cloning: A Laboratory Manual (New York: Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory Press).

In particular please note:

- (1) The use of punctuation in the authors' names and initials.
- (2) There is no space between an author's initials. (for example: Altschul, S.F., NOT Altschul, S. F.)

Users of EndNote or Reference Manager should adopt the reference style of the journal "Cell" which is identical to ours.

The reference section should include only papers that are published or in press. Unpublished or submitted work should be cited in the text, as follows (J.R. Martins, unpublished). It is the responsibility of the authors to obtain permission for personal communications and a letter of permission should be enclosed with the manuscript.

Reprints

Available at standard rates.

Deadline

Completed manuscripts must be received by the editor by the Submission Date set by the editor.

Submission

Submit manuscripts directly to the Editor. When your manuscript has been fully accepted and any requested changes or corrections have been made, the authors should send the final manuscript plus electronic version on a CD to the editor. The author must ensure that the disk which accompanies the manuscript contains a file that exactly matches the manuscript. We can accept electronic files in most versions of popular word processing software (eg Word, Wordperfect etc). Also acceptable is RTF (rich text format). PDF is not acceptable. In addition to electronic versions of figures, it is essential that we receive high-quality hard copy of all figures and tables in case we need to scan.
