

Instructions to Authors

MANUSCRIPTS FOR CONSIDERATION MUST BE SENT BY MAIL to the following address:

SURFACE MAIL OR ORDINARY MAIL: The Editor, Inquiry, Department of Philosophy, University of Essex, Wivenhoe Park, Colchester CO4 3SQ, United Kingdom.

When preparing manuscripts for submission to Inquiry, authors should refer to a recent issue (from and including Vol. 48, 2005) and follow its style as closely as possible or refer to Hart's Rules for Compositors and Readers at the University Press Oxford.

EDITORIAL POLICY Practice and theory in all areas depend on basic assumptions in the background of discussion. Inquiry gives precedence to articles and discussions which bring these assumptions into focus and which place questions of policy or theory in the wider context of traditional philosophical concerns. Preference is also given to papers composed in a style that renders their content accessible to non-specialists. Papers will as a rule be published within one year of receipt. Reviews are confined to extended discussions of books selected for their special interest. Books sent for review are listed in each issue. All papers are published in English.

MANUSCRIPTS Submitted manuscripts must be sent in duplicate. The author must retain a complete copy for proofreading.

The manuscript shall be clearly written on one side only on standard-sized paper, double-spaced throughout (including all note material, references, etc.), with 3 cm wide margins.

The manuscript should be arranged as follows:

Title page. The title should appear on a separate sheet, with the name(s) and institutional affiliation(s) of the author(s), and the full postal and email address of the author to whom proofs, offprints, and other correspondence should be sent.

Abstract. An abstract summarizing the main points in not more than 200 words for articles and 150 words for discussions must accompany the typescript on a separate sheet.

Main text. Use a clear system of headings, with only one grade.

Notes should be typed on separate sheets and numbered consecutively. They will appear at the end of the text.

References should normally be given in the Notes. If a separate list is used it should be typed on a separate sheet, the style as follows:

Journal articles:

Searle, J.R. (1979) "The intentionality of intention and action", Inquiry, 22, pp. 253-280.

Book:

Feyerabend, P.K. (1975) Against Method (London: New Left Books).

Chapter in book:

Taylor, C. (1982) "Rationality", in: M. Hollis & S. Lukes (Eds), Rationality and Relativism, pp. 87-105 (Oxford: Basil Blackwell).

If a list of references is used, references in the main text and notes should be made by giving the name(s) of the author(s) followed by the year of publication in parentheses, e.g. Searle (1979) has argued . . .

ELECTRONIC FILES should be submitted only upon request, accompanied by two copies of the printout of the accepted version. Electronic file and printout must be identical. Diskettes must be labelled clearly: Author, computer platform, word processing system. Microsoft Word files are preferred.

COPYRIGHT It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in Taylor & Francis AS. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the material elsewhere after publication provided that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis AS. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
