Types of Manuscripts (# of manuscript pages in parentheses)

Scholarly manuscripts are original quantitative, qualitative, or mixed-method research; scholarly reviews; and conceptual or discussion papers. For descriptions of research studies, (a) the research or evaluation method must be connected closely to the question(s) being addressed and (b) the setting, participants, and procedures should be described in sufficient detail to allow for possible replication. All manuscripts should include compelling recommendations for secondary education and transition practice that could be applied at the system, program, or individual level. Manuscripts should be written in the active voice. (35 pp.)

Manuscript Preparation

Authors should prepare their manuscript according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th ed., 2020). The editors also recommend that authors follow established guidelines for high-quality research related to the methodology used in their study.

Ethical Standards. Authors are expected to follow the ethical and legal standards outlined in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association related to reporting data and authorship, disclosing funding sources and conflicting interests, and ensuring the rights of research participants. CDTEI also requires that authors certify that IRB approval or institutional exemption was obtained for any studies on which their work is directly based.

Format. Please follow this format for your manuscript.

- Title Page. Submit a SEPARATE TITLE PAGE FILE with (a) article title; (b) names of all authors; (c) author affiliations, complete mailing address for contact author, e-mail addresses of all authors; and (d) any acknowledgments, financial disclosure information, author notes, or other text that could identify authors to reviewers.
- Format: 8½ × 11 in. document; 1-inch margins; double spacing, left alignment, Times New Roman 12-pt. type for text and tables. Include title and abstract. Text and table files MUST BE Word text documents; no PDFs. Tables should all be double spaced.
- Tables. Each table should start on a new page. Tables should follow APA 7th guidelines; please use Word's table functions. All tables must be cited in text.
- Endnotes. Use endnotes sparingly. Number with Arabic numerals starting with 1 and continuing through article. Example: (see Note 1). NO footnotes.

Figures. These should be separate files, with each figure on a new page or file. Figures must be black and white only and production-ready. Because most art will be reduced to fit, use a bold, sans serif type that is large enough to be reduced and still be readable, and make sure rules/tick marks are at least 1 pt.

Acceptable electronic formats for art: TIFF, EPS, Word, or Excel. For scans/photos, download the SAGE Image Resolution Guidelines from the Instructions & Forms link at <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cdtei>. If you have trouble when loading Excel files, copy and paste them into a Word file.

Permissions. Obtaining written permission for material such as figures, tables, art, and extensive quotes taken directly—or adapted in minor ways—from another source is the author's responsibility, as is payment of any fees the copyright holder may require. Permissions often take a considerable amount of time to be granted; start the request process as soon as possible. Material taken from software or from the Internet also requires obtaining permission. Authors can download a Permissions Request form at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cdtei> (see Instructions & Forms Link under Resources head). Read any granted permissions carefully to make sure the language is broad enough to allow publication in all formats, including electronic and print. Failure to obtain permission will result in either removal of the particular item or pulling the article from the journal issue.

Authors for Whom English Is a Second Language. We highly recommend having a colleague or copyeditor who is fluent in English review the manuscript before submission.

Supplemental Material. Decisions regarding inclusion of supplemental material will be made by the editor as part of the article acceptance process. With the exception of videos and podcasts, supplemental files will be deposited to Figshare and assigned a DOI. Authors are responsible for the scientific accuracy and file functionality of all supplemental files; materials will not be copyedited, typeset, or proofread. Additional information and guidelines are available for download from the Instructions and Forms link at <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cdtei>
