Author Instructions Law and Human Behavior

Manuscripts, in English, should be submitted to the Editor's Office via the journal's web-based online manuscript submission and peer-review system:

<https://lahu.edmgr.com>

Inquiries regarding journal policy and other such general topics should be sent to the Editor:

Prof. Richard Wiener
Department of Psychology
University of Nebraska
238 Burnet Hall
Lincoln, NE 68588-0308

Tel.: (402) 472-1137 or (402) 472-3329
Fax: (402) 472-4637
E-mail: rwiener2@unl.edu

The online system offers easy straightforward log-in and submission; supports a wide range of submission file formats [Word, WordPerfect, RTF, TXT and LaTeX for manuscripts; TIFF, GIF, JPEG, EPS, PPT, and Postscript for figures (artwork)]; eliminates the need to submit manuscripts as hard-copy printouts, disks, and/or e-mail attachments; enables real-time tracking of manuscript status by author; and provides help should authors experience any submission difficulties (click on "Contact Us" from the toolbar).

Submission is a representation that the manuscript has not been published previously and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. A statement transferring copyright from the authors (or their employers, if they hold the copyright) to the American Psychology-Law Society/Division 41 of the American Psychological Association will be required before the manuscript can be accepted for publication. The Editor will supply the necessary forms for this transfer. Such a written transfer of copyright, which previously was assumed to be implicit in the act of submitting a manuscript, is necessary under the U.S. Copyright Law in order for the publisher to carry through the dissemination of research results and reviews as widely and effectively as possible.

All manuscripts are anonymously reviewed. Each copy of a manuscript should include a separate title page with authors' names and affiliations, and these should not appear elsewhere in the manuscript. Footnotes that identify the authors should be typed on a separate page. Authors should make every effort to ensure that the manuscript contains no clues to their identities.

Reports of original empirical research must include a statement in the Method section or in a cover letter either certifying that the research was conducted in accord with prevailing ethical principles or explaining the rationale for departures from those principles. See the APA Publication Manual (1994), pp. 292-298.

Author Instructions Law and Human Behavior

Manuscripts should be double-spaced throughout, with generous margins, and typewritten on one side of 8 ½ × 11 in. opaque paper. There are no maximum or minimum length restrictions for articles.

Since the journal publishes articles written by both behavioral scientists and lawyers, manuscript style may conform to either the Uniform System of Citation, distributed by the Harvard Law Review Association, Cambridge, Massachusetts, or the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (1994), distributed by the American Psychological Association, Washington, D.C.

Tables, figures, footnotes, and legends should appear as separate sheets appended to the end of the manuscript. Tables should be numbered in one consecutive series of Arabic numerals and referred to by number in the text. Each table should have a descriptive title. Figures should be numbered in one consecutive series of Arabic numerals. Each figure should have an accompanying caption. Line drawings should be of professional quality, either originals drawn in india ink or high-quality photographic reproduction. Electronic artwork submitted on disk should be in the TIFF or EPS format (1200 dpi for line and 300 dpi for half-tones and gray-scale art). Color art should be in the CYMK color space. Artwork should be on a separate disk from the text, and hard copy must accompany the disk.

Since the technical terms used by behavioral scientists and lawyers differ greatly, in the interest of wider accessibility, the Editor will suggest changes deemed necessary for the sake of clarity.

After a manuscript has been accepted for publication and after all revisions have been incorporated, manuscripts should be submitted to the Editor's Office as hard copy accompanied by electronic files on disk. Label the disk with identifying information &mdash; software, journal name, and first author's last name. The disk must be the one from which the accompanying manuscript (finalized version) was printed out. The Editor's Office cannot accept a disk without its accompanying, matching hard-copy manuscript.

The journal makes no page changes. Reprints are available to authors, and order forms with the current price schedule are sent with proofs.

Springer Open Choice. In addition to the normal publication process (whereby an article is submitted to the journal and access to that article is granted to customers who have purchased a subscription), Springer now provides an alternative publishing option: Springer Open Choice. A Springer Open Choice article receives all the benefits of a regular subscription-based article, but in addition is made available publicly through Springer's online platform SpringerLink. To publish via Springer Open Choice, upon acceptance please visit www.springeronline.com/openchoice to complete the relevant order form and provide the required payment information. Payment must be received in full before publication or articles will publish as regular subscription-model articles. We regret that Springer Open Choice cannot be ordered for published articles.
