Aims and Scope

Law and Philosophy is a forum for work in law and philosophy. The journal aims to publish clear, concise papers addressing philosophical issues in the law, or applying the methods of philosophical analysis to legal issues.

Manuscript Submission

Springer request the submission of manuscripts in paper and electronic format (compulsory). The preferred storage medium for your files is a 3.5 inch diskette, zip disk or CD-ROM. Please label disks with your name, journal name, short manuscript title, file name(s), the software format, and the operating system used. Please always retain a backup copy of your files. After revision, make absolutely sure that you send the latest version of your manuscript (including tables and figures) in paper and electronic format.

We prefer manuscripts submitted in word processing packages such as MS Word, Rich Text Format, WordPerfect, plain Text or LaTeX. The Kluwer LaTeX class file can be downloaded from:
<http://www.springeronline.com/authors/jrnlstylefiles>.

If you are not familiar with TeX/LaTeX we ask that you submit your article in a common word processor format. PDF is not a recommended format.

For the purpose of reviewing, articles for publication should be submitted as hard-copy printout (four-fold) and on diskette to:

Reviewing Procedure

Manuscripts submitted to Law and Philosophy must not be under consideration by another publisher and should not have been published elsewhere in a substantially similar form. Law and Philosophy follows a double-blind reviewing procedure. Authors are therefore requested to place their name and affiliation on a separate page. Self-identifying citations and references in the article text should either be avoided or left blank when manuscripts are first submitted. Authors are responsible for reinserting self-identifying citations and references when manuscripts are prepared for final submission.

Hard-copy figures

Original or good quality printouts of all figures should be submitted with the manuscript. Computer generated printouts should be flawless and on good quality paper. Non-computer generated line figures should be drawn with Indian ink on white matt paper or tracing paper. Photographs should be in black-and-white on glossy paper. If a figure is to be in colour (author's expense), please supply the highest quality possible so that the figure can be scanned. Slides, glossy photos and computer generated printouts on glossy photo quality paper are acceptable. On the reverse side of each figure, the name of the (first) author and the figure number should be written in pencil; the top of the figure should be clearly indicated.

Electronic figures

You should supply the electronic versions of your figures. We prefer figures in TIFF, EPS, PS, PDF and Microsoft Office format. Be aware that we may not be able to use other file formats and that the hard copy may be scanned instead. For vector graphics, EPS is the preferred format. For bitmapped graphics, TIFF is the preferred format. The following resolutions are optimal: line figures – 600 – 1200 dpi; photographs – 300 dpi; screen dumps – leave as is. Colour figures can be submitted in the RGB colour system. Font-related problems can be avoided by using standard fonts such as Times Roman, Courier and Helvetica. Figures should be saved in separate files. The figure legends should be included in the text file.

Language

We appreciate any efforts that you make to ensure that the language is corrected before submission. This will greatly improve the legibility of your paper if English is not your first language.

Manuscript Presentation

The journal's language is English. British English or American English spelling and terminology may be used, but either one should be followed consistently throughout the article. Manuscripts should be printed or typewritten on A4 or US Letter bond paper, one side only, leaving adequate margins on all sides to allow reviewer's remarks. Please double space all material, including notes and references. Quotations of more than 40 words should be set off clearly, either by indenting the left hand margin or by using a smaller typeface. Use double quotation marks for direct quotations and single quotation marks for quotations within quotations and for words or phrases used in a special sense.

Number the pages consecutively with the first page containing:

- running head (shortened title)

- article type (optional)
- title
- author(s)
- affiliation(s)
- full address for correspondence, including telephone and fax number and e-mail address

Section Headings

First-, second-, third-, and fourth-order headings should be clearly distinguishable but not numbered.

Appendices

Supplementary material should be collected in an Appendix and placed at the end of the article.

Notes

Please use footnotes rather than endnotes. Footnotes should be indicated by consecutive superscript numbers in the text. No cross-references (author, year) should be given in the article text; rather, cross-references should be mentioned in the notes, giving the complete reference upon first occurrence. A source reference note should be indicated by means of an asterisk after the title. This note should be placed at the bottom of the first page.

Cross-Referencing

In the the note text, a reference identified by means of an author's name should be followed by the date of the reference in parentheses and page number(s) where appropriate. When there are more than two authors, only the first author's name should be mentioned, followed by 'et al.'. In the event that an author cited has had two or more works published during the same year, the reference, both in the text and in the reference list, should be identified by a lower case letter like 'a' and 'b' after the date to distinguish the works.

Examples:

Winograd (1986, p. 204)

(Winograd 1986a, b)

(Winograd 1986; Flores et al. 1988)

(Bullen and Bennet 1990)

Acknowledgements

Acknowledgements of people, grants, funds, etc. should be placed in a separate section before the References.

References

References to books should include the author's name; title; page numbers where appropriate; place of publication; publisher; year of publication; in the order given in the example below:

Posner, Richard A., Overcoming Law (Cambridge and London: Harvard University Press, 1995), pp. 50–51.

References to articles in an edited collection should include the author's name; article title; title of collection; editor's name; place of publication; publisher; year of publication; first and last page numbers; in the order given in the example below:

Law and Philosophy

Goldman, Alan H., 'The Paradox of Punishment', in A. John Simmons, Marchall Cohen, Joshua Cohen, and Charles R. Beitz (eds.), Punishment, (Princeton University Press, 1995), pp. 30–46.

References to articles in periodicals should include the author's name; article title; full title of periodical; volume number (issue number where appropriate); year of publication; first and last page numbers, in the order given in the example below:

Marmor, Andrei, 'On the Limits of Rights', Law and Philosophy 16(1) (1997): 1–18

References to cases should include the name of the case, the volume of the reporter in which it appears; the abbreviated name of the reporter; the page number on which the cases begins; page numbers for the pages containing the material for which the case was cited (if any); and then, within parentheses, the abbreviated name of the court (unless that is made clear by the name of the reporter) and the date. A state supreme court is indicated by using the abbreviation for the state name; a state intermediate court is indicated by appending the letters "App.". No parallel cites are necessary. See the example below:

United States v. Bonallo, 858 F.2d 1427, 1430–32 (9th Cir. 1998).

Maready v. City of Winston–Salem, 342 N.C. 708 (1996)

Stone v. G. & G. Builders, 121 N.C. App. 671, 673 (1996).

The last case may be cited in regional reporters instead:

Maready v. City of Winston–Salem, 467 S.E.2d 510, 511 (N.C. 1996).

Stone v. G. & G. Builders, 468 S.E.2d 510, 511 (N.C. 1996).

Reference to statutes may include the name of the act, and must include the title number, the codification abbreviation, the section number and the year, in the order given in the example below:

National Labor Relations Act, 29 USC s. 151 (1982).

19 USC s. 160 (1947).

Figures

All photographs, graphs and diagrams should be referred to as a 'Figure' and they should be numbered consecutively (1, 2, etc.). Multi-part figures ought to be labeled with lower case letters (a, b, etc.). Please insert keys and scale bars directly in the figures. Relatively small text and great variation in text sizes within figures should be avoided as figures are often reduced in size. Figures may be sized to fit approximately within the column(s) of the journal. Provide a detailed legend (without abbreviations) to each figure, refer to the figure in the text and note its approximate location in the margin. Please place the legends in the manuscript after the references.

Tables

Each table should be numbered consecutively (1, 2, etc.). In tables, footnotes are preferable to long explanatory material in either the heading or body of the table. Such explanatory footnotes, identified by superscript letters, should be placed immediately below the table. Please provide a caption (without abbreviations) to each table, refer to the table in the text and note its approximate location in the margin. Finally, please place the tables after the figures legends in the manuscript.

Proofs

Proofs will be sent to the corresponding author. One corrected proof, together with the original, edited manuscript, should be returned to the Publisher within three days of receipt by mail (airmail overseas).

Offprints

Twenty–five offprints of each article will be provided free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered by means of an offprint order form supplied with the proofs.

Page Charges and Colour Figures

No page charges are levied on authors or their institutions except for colour pages. The author will be contacted regarding costs and invoicing if the manuscript includes colour figures.

Copyright

Authors will be asked, upon acceptance of an article, to transfer copyright of the article to the Publisher. This will ensure the widest possible dissemination of information under copyright laws.

Permissions

It is the responsibility of the author to obtain written permission for a quotation from unpublished material, or for all quotations in excess of 250 words in one extract or 500 words in total from any work still in copyright, and for the reprinting of figures, tables or poems from unpublished or copyrighted material.

Springer Open Choice

In addition to the normal publication process (whereby an article is submitted to the journal and access to that article is granted to customers who have purchased a subscription), Springer now provides an alternative publishing option: Springer Open Choice. A Springer Open Choice article receives all the benefits of a regular subscription–based article, but in addition is made available publicly through Springers online platform SpringerLink. To publish via Springer Open Choice, upon acceptance please visit www.springeronline.com/openchoice to complete the relevant order form and provide the required payment information. Payment must be received in full before publication or articles will publish as regular subscription–model articles. We regret that Springer Open Choice cannot be ordered for published articles.
