

Manuscript Submission

Manuscripts, in English, should be submitted via the journal's web-based online manuscript-submission and peer-review system:

Inquiries regarding journal policy, manuscript preparation, and other such general topics should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief:

Jeffrey T. Parsons, Ph.D.

Department of Psychology

Hunter College and the Graduate Center of the City University of New York (CUNY)

695 Park Avenue

Room 611 North

New York, NY 10065

e-mail: jeffrey.parsons@hunter.cuny.edu

Manuscripts should be checked for content and style (correct spelling, punctuation, and grammar; accuracy and consistency in the citation of figures, tables, and references; stylistic uniformity of entries in the References section; etc.), as the typesetter is instructed to follow (accepted) manuscripts as presented. Page proofs are sent to the designated author for proofreading and checking. Typographical errors are corrected; authors' alterations are not allowed.

Copyright

Submission is a representation that the manuscript has not been published previously and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. A statement transferring copyright from the authors (or their employers, if they hold the copyright) to Springer Science+Business Media, LLC is required. Upon commencement of typesetting, the contact author will receive an e-mail directing him/her to a webpage where the transfer-of-copyright form can be signed online. Such a written transfer of copyright, which previously was assumed to be implicit in the act of submitting a manuscript, is necessary under the U.S. Copyright Law in order for the publisher to carry through the dissemination of research results and reviews as widely and effectively as possible.

Manuscript Style

Type double-spaced using generous margins on all sides. The entire manuscript, including quotations, references, figure-caption list, and tables, should be double-spaced. Manuscript length, except under unusual circumstances, should generally be no longer than 40 double-spaced pages. Empirical articles should include standard sections, such as Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion, and Conclusions. Number all pages consecutively with Arabic numerals, with the title page being page 1. In order to facilitate masked (previously termed "double-blind") review, leave all identifying information off the manuscript, including the title page and the electronic file name. Upon initial submission, the title page should include only the title of the article.

An additional title page should be provided as a separate submission item and should include the title of the article, author's name, and author's affiliation. Academic affiliations of all authors should be included. The affiliation should comprise the department, institution (usually university or company), city, and state (or nation) and should be typed as a footnote to the author's name. This title page should also include the complete mailing address, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address of the one author designated to review proofs.

An abstract is to be provided, preferably no longer than 150-200 words.

A list of 5-7 key words is to be provided directly below the abstract. Key words should express the precise content of the manuscript, as they are used for indexing purposes.

Illustrations

Illustrations (photographs, drawings, diagrams, and charts) are to be numbered in one consecutive series of Arabic numerals, and cited in numerical order in the text. Photographs should be high-contrast and drawings should be dark, sharp, and clear. Artwork for each figure should be provided on a separate page. Each figure should have an accompanying caption. The captions for illustrations should be listed on a separate page.

Tables should be numbered (with Arabic numerals) and referred to by number in the text. Each table should be typed on a separate page. Center the title above the table, and type explanatory footnotes (indicated by superscript lowercase letters) below the table.

Acknowledgments

All acknowledgments including those for grant and financial support should be typed in one separate paragraph (so-headed) that directly precedes the References section.

References

List references alphabetically at the end of the paper and refer to them in the text by name and year in parentheses. The style and punctuation of the references should conform to strict APA style. In general, the journal follows the recommendations of the 2009 Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.), and it is suggested that contributors refer to this publication.

For articles in a periodical, references in the citation list should include (in this order): last names and initials of all authors (for up to and including six authors), year published (in parentheses), title of article (roman type), name of publication (italics), volume number (italics), and inclusive pages (roman type). This format is illustrated by the following example:

Journal Article

- Gomez-Gil, E., Trilla, A., Salamero, M., Godas, T., & Valdes, M. (2009). Sociodemographic, clinical and psychiatric characteristics of transsexuals from Spain. Archives of Sexual Behavior, 38, 378-392.

For books and book chapters, the following general examples apply:

Book

- Kalichman, S. C. (2009). Denying AIDS: Denialism, pseudoscience, and human tragedy. New York: Springer Science+Business Media.

Contribution to a Book

- Walkup, J., & Cramer-Berness, L. (2007). Coping with HIV/AIDS: The challenges of an evolving disease. In E. Martz & H. Livneh (Eds.), Coping with chronic illness and disability: Theoretical, empirical, and clinical aspects (pp. 129–151). New York: Springer Science+Business Media.

Footnotes

Footnotes should be avoided. When their use is absolutely necessary, footnotes should be numbered consecutively using Arabic numerals and should be typed at the bottom of the page to which they refer. Place a line above the footnote, so that it is set off from the text. Use the appropriate superscript numeral for citation in the text.

No Page Charges

This journal makes no page charges. Reprints are available to authors. Upon commencement of typesetting, the contact author will receive an e-mail directing him/her to a webpage that provides reprint ordering information, including the current price schedule, and where reprints can be ordered online.

Does Springer provide English language support?

Manuscripts that are accepted for publication will be checked by our copyeditors for spelling and formal style. This may not be sufficient if English is not your native language and substantial editing would be required. In that case, you may want to have your manuscript edited by a native speaker prior to submission. A clear and concise language will help editors and reviewers concentrate on the scientific content of your paper and thus smooth the peer review process.

The following editing service provides language editing for scientific articles in all areas Springer publishes in.

Use of an editing service is neither a requirement nor a guarantee of acceptance for publication.

Please contact the editing service directly to make arrangements for editing and payment.
