

Notes for Contributors

Papers should be original. The editors prefer to receive manuscripts by email. If this is not possible, please send four copies of the complete text together with a floppy disk to either editor:

*Bert P.M. Creemers, c/o Conny Lenderink, University of Groningen, GION, PO Box 1286, 9701 BG Groningen, The Netherlands. Email: c.m.a.lenderink@rug.nl

*David Reynolds, School of Education, Heavitree Road, Exeter EX1 2LU, UK.
Email: david.reynolds@exeter.ac.uk.

It is anticipated that articles will be in the order of 5000 to 8000 words. Shorter articles between 2000 and 4000 words can also be published, where preliminary findings are being submitted or where importance of the topic only justifies a short treatment. The latter articles will be carried in a section entitled 'Shorter Articles and Notes'.

Manuscripts should be typed on one side of A4 paper with double spacing and a wide margin to the left. Four copies should be submitted, and a copy in Word format sent to the editors by email. In addition, a copy should be retained by the authors. All pages should be numbered. To allow anonymous refereeing, all submissions must be properly formatted for reviewing (see Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 5th edition, 2001, for instructions). Authors' names and institutions should be typed on a separate sheet and submitted with the manuscript. The full postal and email address of the author who will check proofs and receive correspondence and offprints should also be included.

To download a Word template for this journal, click here, and choose the 'Save' option. Save 'edstyleb.doc' to your hard drive and open it for use by clicking on the icon in Windows Explorer, not by opening the file from within Word.

Each paper should be accompanied on separate sheets by an abstract of 100 to 150 words.

Tables and captions to illustrations. Tables must be typed out on separate sheets and not included as part of the text. The captions to illustrations should be gathered together and also typed out on a separate sheet. Tables and Figures should be numbered consecutively by Arabic numerals. The approximate position of tables and figures should be indicated in the manuscript. Captions should include keys to any symbols used.

Figures. Please supply one set of artwork in a finished form, suitable for reproduction. Figures will not normally be redrawn by the publisher.

Citations of other work should be limited to those strictly necessary for the argument. Any quotations should be brief, and accompanied by precise references.

References should be indicated in the typescript by giving the author's name, with the year of publication in parentheses, as detailed in the APA style guide. If several papers by the same author(s) and from the same year are cited, a, b, c, etc. should be put after the year of publication. The references should be listed in full at the end of the paper in standard APA format. For example:

For books:

Massey, W. R., & Jameson, W. M., Jr. (2001). Organizational behavior and the new internet logic (3rd ed.). New York: McGraw-Hill.

For articles:

Loughran, J., & Corrigan, D. (1995). Teaching portfolios: A strategy for developing learning and teaching in preservice education. Teaching and Teacher Education, 11, 565–577.

For chapters within books:

Marzano, R. J. (1994). Commentary on literacy portfolios: Windows on potential. In S. H. Valencia, E. H. Hiebert, & P. P. E. Afflerbach (Eds.), Authentic reading assessment: Practices and possibilities (pp. 41–56). Newark, NJ: International Reading Association).

For online documents:

Standler, R. (2000). Plagiarism in colleges in the USA. Retrieved August 6 2004 from www.rbs2.com/plag.htm

Titles of journals and names of publishers, etc. should not be abbreviated. Acronyms for the names of organisations, examinations, etc. should be preceded by the title in full.

If you have any further questions about the style for this journal, please submit your questions using the Style Queries form.

Proofs will be sent to authors by email if there is sufficient time to do so. They should be corrected and returned to the Publisher within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Early Electronic Offprints: Corresponding authors can now receive their article by email as a complete PDF. This allows the author to print up to 50 copies, free of charge, and disseminate them to colleagues. In many cases this facility will be available up to two weeks prior to publication. Or, alternatively, corresponding authors will receive the traditional 50 offprints. A copy of the journal will be sent by post to all corresponding authors after publication. Additional copies of the journal can be purchased at the author's preferential rate of £15.00/$25.00 per copy.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or licence the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Taylor & Francis. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication without prior permission from Taylor & Francis, provided that acknowledgement is given to the Journal as the original source of publication, and that Taylor & Francis is notified so that our records show that its use is properly authorised. Authors retain a number of other rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies documents. These policies are referred to at www.tandf.co.uk/journals/authorrights.pdf for full details. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
