

ILE Notes for Contributors

Papers should be original. If possible, please send your manuscripts to the Editors by e-mail. Please submit your manuscript as a PDF file to: Professor Roy Rada, Department of Information Systems, University of Maryland, Baltimore County, 1000 Hilltop Circle, Baltimore, MD 21250 USA. Email: rada@umbc.edu or

Dr Bernard Scott, Cranfield University, Defence Academy, Shrivenham, Wiltshire, SN6 8LA, UK Email: b.c.e.scott@cranfield.ac.uk

Papers should normally be between 2,000 and 6,000 words in length.

Follow the formatting guidelines of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 5th edition, 2001. Each manuscript must include an abstract of 100 to 300 words. The full postal and email address of the author who will check proofs and receive correspondence and offprints should also be included.

After acceptance for publishing, authors should send the final, revised version of their manuscripts in both hard copy paper and electronic forms to the publisher. It is essential that the hard copy (paper) version exactly matches the material on electronic file. Please print the hard copy from the electronic version. Submit one printed copy of the final version, together with the electronic version, to the publisher. Electronic material should be in PC compatible MS Word format. All pages should be numbered.

Tables and captions to illustrations. For the manuscript to be reviewed, the tables and figures should be in the body of the text. After acceptance, the manuscript should be reformatted to: 1) put the tables and figures at the end of the document on separate sheets and 2) collect the captions together on a separate sheet. Tables and Figures should be numbered consecutively by Arabic numerals. The approximate position of tables and figures should be indicated in the manuscript. Captions should include keys to any symbols used. Please supply one set of artwork in a finished form, suitable for reproduction. Figures will not normally be redrawn by the publisher.

References should be indicated in the typescript by giving the author's name, with the year of publication in parentheses, as detailed in the APA style guide. If several papers by the same author(s) and from the same year are cited, a, b, c, etc. should be put after the year of publication. The references should be listed in full at the end of the paper in standard APA format. For example:

For books:

Massey, W. R., & Jameson, W. M., Jr. (2001). Organizational behavior and the new internet logic (3rd ed.). New York: McGraw-Hill.

For articles:

Loughran, J., & Corrigan, D. (1995). Teaching portfolios: A strategy for developing learning and teaching in preservice education. Teaching and Teacher Education, 11, 565–577.

For chapters within books: Marzano, R. J. (1994). Commentary on literacy portfolios: Windows on potential. In S. H. Valencia, E. H. Hiebert, & P. P. E. Afflerbach (Eds.), Authentic reading assessment: Practices and possibilities (pp. 41–56). Newark, NJ: International Reading Association).

For online documents:

Standler, R. (2000). Plagiarism in colleges in the USA. Retrieved August 6 2004 from www.rbs2.com/plag.htm

Titles of journals and names of publishers, etc. should not be abbreviated. Acronyms for the names of organisations, examinations, etc. should be preceded by the title in full.

If you have any further questions about the style for this journal, please submit your questions using the Style Queries form.

Proofs will be sent to authors by email if there is sufficient time to do so. They should be corrected and returned to the Publisher within three days. Major alterations to the text cannot be accepted.

Early Electronic Offprints: Corresponding authors can now receive their article by email as a complete PDF. This allows the author to print up to 50 copies, free of charge, and disseminate them to colleagues. In many cases this facility will be available up to two weeks prior to publication. Or, alternatively, corresponding authors will receive the traditional 50 offprints. A copy of the journal will be sent by post to all corresponding authors after publication. Additional copies of the journal can be purchased at the author's preferential rate of £15.00/$25.00 per copy.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or licence the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to Taylor & Francis. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication without prior permission from Taylor & Francis, provided that acknowledgement is given to the Journal as the original source of publication, and that Taylor & Francis is notified so that our records show that its use is properly authorised. Authors retain a number of other rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies documents. These policies are referred to at www.tandf.co.uk/journals/authorrights.pdf for full details. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
