

Contents

Preface	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Making the Environment Historical – An Introduction	1
Sverker Sörlin and Paul Warde
 Part I The Rise of the Environmental
1 Imperialism, Intellectual Networks, and Environmental Change; Unearthing the Origins and Evolution of Global Environmental History	23
Richard Grove and Vinita Damodaran
2 Separation, Proprietorship and Community in the History of Conservation	50
William M. Adams
3 The Environmental History of Pre-industrial Agriculture in Europe	70
Paul Warde
4 The Global Warming That Did Not Happen: Historicizing Glaciology and Climate Change	93
Sverker Sörlin
5 Genealogies of the Ecological Moment: Planning, Complexity and the Emergence of 'the Environment' as Politics in West Germany, 1949–1982	115
Holger Nehring
 Part II History and the Environmental Sciences
6 The Environmental History of Mountain Regions	141
Robert A. Dodgshon

- 7 Interdisciplinary Conversations: The Collective Model 162
A. Hamilton, F. Watson, A.L. Davies, and N. Hanley
- 8 New Science for Sustainability in an Ancient Land 188
Libby Robin

Part III Making Space: Environments and Their Contexts

- 9 54, 40 or Fight: Writing Within and Across Borders in North American Environmental History 215
Matthew Evenden and Graeme Wynn
- 10 Modernity and the Politics of Waste in Britain 247
Tim Cooper
- 11 Why Intensify? The Outline of a Theory of the Institutional Causes Driving Long-Term Changes in Chinese Farming and the Consequent Modifications to the Environment 273
Mark Elvin
- 12 Reconsidering Climate and Causality: Case Studies from Colonial Mexico 304
Georgina Endfield

Part IV 'Things Human'

- 13 Destinies and Decisions: Taking the Life-World Seriously in Environmental History 331
Kirsten Hastrup

Afterword 349
Peter Burke

Index 358