

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1
The Problem of Antigen-Receptor Heterogeneity and the Coherent Regulation of the Immune Response.....	1
Peter A. Bretscher
Commentaries	5
Rod E. Langman
Jacques R. J. Hiernaux
Response to the Commentaries	6
Peter A. Bretscher
Chapter 2
Can a Mammalian Species with Monomorphic Class I MHC Molecules Succeed?.....	9
Alix G. Darden and J. Wayne Streilein
Commentaries	20
Patricia P. Jones and George C. Chow
Jonathan C. Howard: The Hamster MHC—How Many Paradoxes?
Chapter 3
Immunological Quiescence Towards Self: Rethinking the Paradigm of Clonal Abortion.....	27
Erwin Diener and Cory A. Waters
Commentaries	40
Sir Gustav Nossal
N. Avrion Mitchison
Response to Dr. Mitchison's Commentary	42
Erwin Diener and Cory A. Waters
Chapter 4
The One Receptor Model and T-Cells with High Affinity for Nonself Other Than Alloantigen	43
Peter C. Doherty
Commentaries	51
Polly Matzinger
Michael J. Bevan
N. Avrion Mitchison
Response to the Commentaries	54
Peter C. Doherty
Chapter 5
Suppressor T-Cells Are Not Easily Cloned by Methods for Cloning Helper T-Cells	57
Diane D. Eardley and Pamela Hunt
Commentaries	61
Edgar G. Engleman and Nitin K. Damle
Martin E. Dorf
Richard J. Hodes

Chapter 6
Genetic Linkage of MHC- and IGH-V-Linked Gene Products on T-Cell Regulatory Molecules	65
Patrick M. Flood
Commentaries	77
Mark I. Greene
Stephen D. Miller and Roger W. Melvold
Chapter 7
Anomalous Prolonged Allograft Survival after Deliberate Immunization against Graft-Specific Alloantigens.....	81
Reginald M. Gorchynski and Maria Robillard
Commentaries	92
Paul I. Terasaki
Frank P. Stuart
Response to the Commentaries.....	93
Reginald M. Gorchynski and Maria Robillard
Chapter 8
Tumor Dormancy as a Result of Simple Competition between Tumor Cells and Cytolytic Effector Cells.....	95
Jacques R. Hiernaux, René Lefever, Catherine Uyttenhove, and Thierry Boon
Commentaries	106
Richmond T. Prehn
E. Frederick Wheelock
Response to Dr. Prehn's Commentary	109
Jacques R. Hiernaux
Chapter 9
The Smell of H-2.....	111
Geoffrey W. Hoffman
Commentaries	114
Kunio Yamazaki
Edward A. Boyse
Chapter 10
Why Is the Immune System Not Overwhelmed by Suppression? A Reductionist Paradox.....	115
Robert H. Loblay and Antony Basten
Commentaries	120
Peter A. Bretscher
Peter C. Doherty
Chapter 11
Are Rheumatoid Factors Produced during Conventional Immune Responses Beneficial to the Host?.....	123
Audrey J. Manheimer-Lory and Constantin A. Bona
Commentaries	133
Argyrios N. Theofilopoulos
Dennis A. Carson

Chapter 12

T-Cell Regulation without Clonal Selection by Antigen? Polygamous Suppressor Cells and Monogamous Helper Cells at High Frequencies.....	137
Inga Melchers and Klaus Eichmann
Commentaries	148
Herman Waldmann
Geoffrey W. Hoffmann: Another Paradox
Response to Dr. Waldmann's Commentary	150
Inga Melchers and Klaus Eichmann

Chapter 13

Does Clonal Selection Apply to T-Cells?	151
Richard G. Miller
Commentaries	158
Pamela Fink
Linda M. Pilarski
Hung-Sia Teh

Chapter 14

B-Cells Can Be Activated in More Than One Way	163
N. Avrión Mitchison and Michael J. H. Ratcliffe
Commentaries	166
Jonathan Sprent
Michael H. Julius
Antonio Coutinho

Chapter 15

T-Cell Proliferation and Differentiation	171
N. Avrión Mitchison
Commentaries	173
Arno Mullbacher
Klaus Eichmann

Chapter 16

Idiotypic Networks in Tumor Immunity	177
Karen A. Nelson and Gerald T. Nepom
Commentaries	183
Linda L. Perry
Geoffrey W. Hoffmann and Douglas G. Kilburn: Does Network Theory Tell Us What to Expect?
Response to the Commentaries	185
Karen A. Nelson and Gerald T. Nepom

Chapter 17

The Paradox of Carbohydrate Histocompatibility Antigens	187
Christopher R. Parish
Commentaries	193
John H. Freed
Mauro S. Sandrin and Ian F. C. McKenzie
Response to Dr. Freed's Commentary	196
Christopher R. Parish and Mauro S. Sandrin

Chapter 18
Paradoxes in B-Cell Stimulation by Polymeric Antigen and the Immunon Concept.....	199
Alan S. Perelson
Commentaries	211
Howard M. Dintzis and Renee Z. Dintzis
George I. Bell
Sir Gustav Nossal
Chapter 19
Regulation of Idiotypic Profiles: Expected Dominance and Paradoxical Loss of T15 Expression.....	215
José Quintáns and Gregory Wemhoff
Commentaries	220
Marvin B. Rittenberg and Thomas von der Haar Tittle
John Kearney and Meenal Vakil
Response to the Commentaries.....	223
José Quintáns and Gregory Wemhoff
Chapter 20
The Isogeneic Barrier Revisited: Cell Dose Effects and Loss of MHC Control of Responses.....	225
Lydia Sikora and Julia G. Levy
Commentaries	229
Erwin Diener
William O. Weigle
N. Avriam Mitchison
Chapter 21
Paradoxical Primary Response of ($P_1 \times P_2$) F_1 Female Mice to Male P_1 and P_2 Skin.....	231
Elizabeth Simpson
Commentaries	237
Mauro S. Sandrin and Ian F. C. McKenzie
Morton Simonsen
Lawrence L. Johnson
Response to the Commentaries.....	241
Elizabeth Simpson
Chapter 22
Idiotypes, Allotypes, and a Paradox of Inheritance.....	243
E. J. Steele
Commentaries	248
Anwyl Cooper-Willis
Thomas J. Kindt
Response to the Commentaries.....	251
E. J. Steele

Chapter 23
Are There Unique I Region-Controlled Determinants on T-Cells?	253
Tomio Tada, Wojciech Uracz, and Ryo Abe
Commentaries	266
Donal B. Murphy
Ronald N. Germain
Chapter 24
I-J — Immunoregulatory Molecules in Search of a Gene	271
Carl Waltenbaugh
Commentaries	282
David H. Lynch
Leonore A. Herzenberg
Masaru Taniguchi
Chapter 25
Differences in the Recognition of MHC Class I Molecules by T-Cells and Antibodies	287
Marie Rose van Schravendijk, John E. Coligan, and William E. Biddison
Commentaries	295
Ted H. Hansen
Richard A. Zeff, Gertrude M. Pfaffenbach, and Stanley G. Nathenson
J. Scott Cairns and Fritz H. Bach: Comments on T- and B-Cell Recognition of Polymorphic MHC Specificities
Chapter 26
The Paradox of Histocompatibility and Mammalian Pregnancy	299
Thomas G. Wegmann
Commentaries	304
Peter M. Johnson
Anne McLaren
Chapter 27
Allelic Exclusion or Inclusion	307
Benjamin Wolf
Commentaries	318
Edward S. Kimball
Stewart Sell
David Catty and N. J. Hole
Response to the Catty and Hole Commentary	323
Benjamin Wolf
Index	325
