

BRIEF CONTENTS

SECTION I: INTRODUCTION TO VIROLOGY

1. Introduction to Virology 2

Nicholas H. Acheson, McGill University

2. Virus Structure and Assembly 18

Stephen C. Harrison, Harvard University

3. Virus Classification: The World of Viruses 31

Nicholas H. Acheson, McGill University

4. Virus Entry 45

Ari Helenius, Swiss Federal Institute of Technology, Zurich

SECTION II: VIRUSES OF BACTERIA AND ARCHAEA

5. Single-Stranded RNA Bacteriophages 59

Jan van Duin, University of Leiden

6. Microviruses 69

Bentley Fane, University of Arizona

7. Bacteriophage T7 77

William C. Summers, Yale University

8. Bacteriophage Lambda 85

Michael Feiss, University of Iowa

9. Viruses of Archaea 97

David Prangisvili, Institut Pasteur

SECTION III: POSITIVE-STRAND RNA VIRUSES OF EUKARYOTES

10. Cucumber Mosaic Virus 112

*Ping Xu, J. Noble Research Institute
Marilyn J. Roossinck, J. Noble Research Institute*

11. Picornaviruses 125

Bert L. Semler, University of California, Irvine

12. Flaviviruses 137

Richard Kubn, Purdue University

13. Togaviruses 148

*Milton Schlesinger, Washington University
in St. Louis*

*Sondra Schlesinger, Washington University
in St. Louis*

Revised by: Richard Kubn, Purdue University

14. Coronaviruses 159

Mark Denison, Vanderbilt University

Michelle M. Becker, Vanderbilt University

SECTION IV: NEGATIVE-STRAND AND DOUBLE-STRANDED RNA VIRUSES OF EUKARYOTES

15. Paramyxoviruses and Rhabdoviruses 175

Nicholas H. Acheson, McGill University

Daniel Kolakofsky, University of Geneva

Christopher Richardson, Dalhousie University

Revised by: Laurent Roux, University of Geneva

16. Filoviruses 188

Heinz Feldmann, Division of Intramural Research, NIAID, NIH

Hans-Dieter Klenk, University of Marburg

Nicholas H. Acheson, McGill University

17. Bunyaviruses 200

Richard M. Elliott, University of St. Andrews

18. Influenza Viruses 210

Dalius J. Briedis, McGill University

19. Reoviruses 225

Terence S. Dermody, Vanderbilt University

James D. Chappell, Vanderbilt University

SECTION V: SMALL DNA VIRUSES OF EUKARYOTES

20. Parvoviruses 238

Peter Beard, Swiss Institute for Experimental Cancer Research

21. Polyomaviruses 247

Nicholas H. Acheson, McGill University

22. Papillomaviruses 263

Greg Matlashewski, McGill University
Revised by: Lawrence Banks, International Centre for Genetic Engineering and Biotechnology, Trieste

SECTION VI: LARGER DNA VIRUSES OF EUKARYOTES

23. Adenoviruses 274

Philip Branton, McGill University
Richard C. Marcellus, McGill University

24. Herpesviruses 285

Bernard Roizman, University of Chicago
Gabriella Campadelli-Fiume, University of Bologna
Richard Longnecker, Northwestern University

25. Baculoviruses 302

Eric B. Carstens, Queen's University

26. Poxviruses 312

Richard C. Condit, University of Florida

27. Viruses of Algae and Mimivirus 325

Michael J. Allen, Plymouth Marine Laboratory
William H. Wilson, Bigelow Laboratory for Ocean Sciences

SECTION VII: VIRUSES THAT USE A REVERSE TRANSCRIPTASE

28. Retroviruses 342

Alan Cochrane, University of Toronto

29. Human Immunodeficiency Virus 354

Alan Cochrane, University of Toronto

30. Hepadnaviruses 365

Christopher Richardson, Dalhousie University

SECTION VIII: VIROIDS AND PRIONS

31. Viroids and Hepatitis Delta Virus 378

Jean-Pierre Perreault, Université de Sherbrooke
Martin Pelchat, University of Ottawa

32. Prions 387

Darius J. Briedis, McGill University

SECTION IX: HOST DEFENSES AGAINST VIRUS INFECTION

33. Intrinsic Cellular Defenses Against Virus Infection 398

Karen Mossman, McMaster University
Pierre Genin, University Paris Descartes
John Hiscott, McGill University

34. Innate and Adaptive Immune Responses to Virus Infection 415

Malcolm G. Baines, McGill University
Karen Mossman, McMaster University

SECTION X: ANTIVIRAL AGENTS AND VIRUS VECTORS

35. Antiviral Vaccines 428

Brian Ward, McGill University

36. Antiviral Chemotherapy 444

Donald M. Coen, Harvard University

37. Eukaryotic Virus Vectors 456

Rénald Gilbert, NRC Biotechnology Research Institute, Montreal
Bernard Massie, NRC Biotechnology Research Institute, Montreal
