Developing a potential fossil yield classification map for Glen Canyon National Recreation Area. JARED BUCK EHRLER, JAMES I. KIRKLAND, PAUL INKENBRANDT, GRANT WILLIS, SCOTT K. MADSEN, DONALD D. DeBLIEUX, LANCE WEAVER, AND VINCENT L. SANTUCCI.....	8-9
Update on the status of the Society of Vertebrate Paleontology standard guidelines for the assessment and mitigation of adverse impacts to paleontological resources. LANNY H. FISK AND ROBERT E. REYNOLD	10
Paleontology and public diplomacy. SCOTT E. FOSS.....	11
A history of federal paleontologists. SCOTT E. FOSS.....	12
Trilobites from the upper Cadiz Formation (Middle Cambrian) of the southern Marble Mountains of California. JOHN R. FOSTER.....	12
Utah's Paleontological Locality Database System. MARTHA HAYDEN	13
Update on Mineral Wells Fossil Park: A project by the city of Mineral Wells, Texas with assistance from the Dallas Paleontological Society. LEE TAYLOR HIGGINBOTHAM	13-14
Fun with tracks and bones: Cooperative management of park paleontological resources by Colorado National Monument and the Museum of Western Colorado. REBECCA K. HUNT-FOSTER, BRIANA BOARD, AND JOHN R. FOSTER	15
Ancient changes, modern message: Utilizing paleoecosystems of the Cenozoic fossil parks to interpret past and present climate change. JASON P. KENWORTHY	16
Planning, excavating, and reclaiming a dinosaur excavation using mechanized equipment in the 21st Century. JAMES I. KIRKLAND, SCOTT K. MADSEN, GARY HUNT, DONALD D. DeBLIEUX, AND DALE GRAY	17-18
The effectiveness of pre-survey aerial photography and geologic map reviews: A case study based on fossil distribution within the Uinta Formation, Uintah County, Utah. GEORGIA E. KNAUSS, JUSTIN J. STRAUSS, LORI S. BROWNE, BEN J. BURGER, AND PAUL C. MURPHEY.....	19
Inventory and updating the White River Group collections for the move to the James E. Martin Paleontological Research Laboratory. JASON KORF, ED WELSH, JASON CARR, HUAI-PIN HU, SALLY Y. SHELTON, SALLY, AND BILL SCHURMANN.....	19
The Impact of Volunteer Paleontological Monitoring and Surveying in Caribou-Targhee National Forest on the Cretaceous Paleontology of southeastern Idaho. L. J. KRUMENACKER AND STEVEN F. ROBISON	20
Educating future paleontological resource managers at Oglala Lakota College (Oglala Sioux Tribe), Pine Ridge Reservation, South Dakota. HANNAN E. LAGARRY.....	21
GIS mapping of fossil localities used as a management tool. SHERRIE C. LANDON AND LESLIE-LYNNE SINKEY	21
Building a new paleontology site steward program. SHERRIE C. LANDON AND LESLIE-LYNNE SINKEY	22
Taking measure of technology: Where we have been and where we are going with 3D image capture and close-range photogrammetry. NEFFRA A. MATTHEWS	23-24
Full disclosure of paleontological locality data: An integral component of credible science. HERBERT W. MEYER, DENA SMITH, KIRK R. JOHNSON, IAN MILLER, ESTELLA B. LEOPOLD, AND ELIZABETH NESBITT	26

Creative strategies in conservation: Documenting the establishment and history of Florissant Fossil Beds National Monument. HERBERT W. MEYER AND ESTELLA B. LEOPOLD	26
Rocks, regulations and repositories: The three "Rs" of a successful curriculum for paleontologists in a PRPA world. DARRIN PAGNAC, JAMES MARTIN, SALLY SHELTON, AND AARON WOOD	27
Preliminary Report of the First Recorded Late Pleistocene Mammal Tracks from Southeast Idaho and Management Implications. STEVEN F. ROBISON, MARY E. THOMPSON, JENNIFER K. HUANG, TYLER B. THOMPSON, ALLEN R. TEDROW, AND PAUL BARRETT	28
New Fossils from Old Fossil Beds: Paleontological Resource Monitoring at John Day Fossil Beds National Monument. JOSHUA X. SAMUELS	29
Documentation of paleontological resources throughout the National Park System. VINCENT L. SANTUCCI, JASON P. KENWORTHY, JAMES C. WOODS, AND JUSTIN S. TWEET	29
National Fossil Day: Celebrating the scientific and educational values of fossils. VINCENT L. SANTUCCI, JIM F. WOOD, JASON P. KENWORTHY, ERICA C. CLITES, CHRISTINE L. MCDUGAL, AND GEOFF CAMPHIRE	30
Paleontological resource monitoring of in situ vertebrate tracksites at Glen Canyon National Recreation Area, Utah. VINCENT L. SANTUCCI, ANDREW R. C. MILNER, JAMES I. KIRKLAND, SCOTT MADSEN, DON DEBLIEUX, ERICA C. CLITES, MATTHEW T. MILLER, AND JOHN SPENCE	30
An evaluation of sixteen years of paleontological visitor site reports in Badlands National Park, South Dakota. BENJAMIN A. SCHERZER AND RACHEL BENTON	31
Paleoecological and paleoenvironmental implications of microfossil specimens utilizing Geographical Information Systems (GIS). LAURA G. SCOTT	31
The South Dakota School of Mines and Technology Museum of Geology's James E. Martin Paleontology Research Laboratory: A regional repository for federal, tribal, and state collections. SALLY SHELTON, JAMES MARTIN, DARRIN PAGNAC, AND AARON WOOD	32
* Management of Paleontology Resources in Lance Creek Fossil Area. ALICE TRATEBAS AND BRENT H. BREITHAUP	34
Highway Construction and Fossil Resources: Road to Destruction or Path to Preservation? Nebraska's Highway Paleontology Program. SHANE T. TUCKER	34
* Anchisaurus from Springfield Armory. JUSTIN S. TWEET AND VINCENT L. SANTUCCI	35
Interpreting Pleistocene environments at the Florissant Fossil Beds National Monument, Colorado. STEVEN WADE VEATCH AND HERBERT W. MEYER	35
The Hanksville-Burpee Quarry: Cooperative Management of an Important Paleontological Bonebed. SCOTT A. WILLIAMS, MATTHEW BONNAN, SCOTT FOSS, JOSH MATTHEWS, AND JAMES KIRKLAND	37-38
