

CONTENTS

Introduction		1
Chapter 1	An Introduction to Neotropical Primates Joseph M. Shostell and Manuel Ruiz-Garcia	3
Phylogeny, Molecular Population Genetics and Paleoprimatology		39
Chapter 2	The Paleobiology of the Recently-Extinct Platyrrhines of Brazil and the Caribbean Siobhán B. Cooke, Justin T. Gladman, Lauren B. Halenar, Zachary S. Klukkert and Alfred L. Rosenberger	41
Chapter 3	Genetic Heterogeneity and Evolutionary Demographic History of the Endemic Colombian Saguinus leucopus (Primates) by Means of DNA Microsatellites and Coalescence Methods Manuel Ruiz-García, Pablo Escobar-Armel, Norberto Leguizamón and Joseph Mark Shostell	91
Chapter 4	Diversity of Cebus Species from the Southern Distribution of the Genus Mariela Nieves and Marta Dolores Mudry	115
Chapter 5	Genetic Structure, Spatial Patterns and Historical Demographic Evolution of White-Throated Capuchin (Cebus Capucinus , Cebidae, Primates) Populations of Colombia and Central America by Means of DNA Microsatellites Manuel Ruiz-García and María Ignacia Castillo	135
Chapter 6	Invalidation of Three Robust Capuchin Species (Cebus libidinosus Pallidus, C. macrocephalus and C. fatuellus ; Cebidae, Primates) in the Western Amazon and Orinoco by Analyzing DNA Microsatellites Manuel Ruiz-García, María Ignacia Castillo, Kelly Luengas-Villamil and Norberto Leguizamón	173

Chapter 7	It Is Misleading to Use Sapajus (Robust Capuchins) as a Genus? A Review of the Evolution of the Capuchins and Suggestions on Their Systematics Manuel Ruiz-García, María Ignacia Castillo and Kelly Luengas-Villamil	209
Chapter 8	Sex Chromosomes and Sex Determination in Platyrrhini Eliana R. Steinberg and Marta D. Mudry	269
Chapter 9	Can Mitochondrial DNA, Nuclear Microsatellite DNA and Cranial Morphometrics Accurately Discriminate Different Aotus Species (Cebidae)? Some Insights on Population Genetics Parameters and the Phylogeny of the Night Monkeys Manuel Ruiz-García, Adriana Vallejo, Emily Camargo, Diana Alvarez, Norberto Leguizamon and Hugo Gálvez	287
Chapter 10	Phylogenetic Relationships of Pitheciidae and Temporal Splits in Reference to Cebidae and Atelidae by Means of Mitogenomics Manuel Ruiz-García, Geven Rodríguez, Myreya Pinedo-Castro and Joseph Mark Shostell	345
Chapter 11	Microsatellite DNA Analyses of four Alouatta Species (Atelidae, Primates): Evolutionary Microsatellite Dynamics Manuel Ruiz-García, Pablo Escobar-Armel, Marta Mudry, Marina Ascunce, Gustavo Gutierrez-Espeleta and Joseph Mark Shostell	369
Chapter 12	Which Howler Monkey (Alouatta , Atelidae, Primates) Taxon is Living in the Peruvian Madre de Dios River Basin (Southern Peru)? Results from Mitochondrial Gene Analyses and Some Insights in the Phylogeny of Alouatta Manuel Ruiz-García, Angela Cerón, Myreya Pinedo-Castro and Gustavo Gutierrez-Espeleta	395
Chapter 13	Historical Genetic Demography and Some Insights into the Systematics of Ateles (Atelidae, Primates) by Means of Diverse Mitochondrial Genes Manuel Ruiz-García, Nicolás Lichilín, Pablo Escobar-Armel, Geven Rodríguez and Gustavo Gutiérrez-Espeleta	435
Conservation Biology		477
Chapter 14	Capuchin Monkeys in Amazonian Mangrove Areas R. R. Santos, R. G. Ferreira and A. Araujo	479
Chapter 15	How Does the Colombian Squirrel Monkey Cope with Habitat Fragmentation? Strategies to Survive in Small Fragments Xyomara Carretero-Pinzón, Thomas R Defler and Manuel Ruiz-García	491

Chapter 16	Callicebus ornatus , an Endemic Colombian Species: Demography, Behavior and Conservation Xyomara Carretero-Pinzon and Thomas R. Defler	507
Chapter 17	Biogeography and Conservation of Pitheciines: Sakis, Bearded Sakis and Uacaris (Pithecia , Chiropotes and Cacajao) Marilyn A. Norconk and Sarah A. Boyle	521
Chapter 18	State of Primates in Northeastern Peru: The Case of the Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve Pablo Puertas, Richard Bodmer and Miguel Antúnez	551
Chapter 19	Current Knowledge on Primate Distribution and Conservation in Bolivia Heidy Lopez-Strauss, Robert B. Wallace, Nohelia Mercado and Zulia R. Porcel	575
