

Contents

Editor's preface	v
Preface	vi
About the author	vii
About Naturalists' Handbooks	viii

1	Ponds	1
2	Living in freshwater	12
3	The littoral	25
	Key A: Traditional key to kingdoms of organisms	36
	Key B: Contemporary key to kingdoms of organisms	38
	Key C: Pragmatic key to groups of microorganisms	43
	Key D: Algae visible, at least en masse, to the naked eye	48
	Key E: Periphyton, both attached to surfaces, and free living	54
	Key F: Protozoa	65
	Key G: Freshwater invertebrates	80
4	Plankton	84
	Key H: Common phytoplankton genera in ponds	93
5	Catchments, nutrients and organic matter	107
6	The ecological development of ponds and lakes	126
7	Food webs and structures in ponds	148
8	Problems with ponds and small lakes	164
9	Ponds and the future	184
10	Bibliography and further information	197
	Index	206