

*"The sight of a feather in a peacock's tail,
whenever I gaze at it, makes me sick!"*

(C. Darwin in writing to his American colleague Asa Gray, 3 April 1860).

Peacock feathers are "certainly one of the most beautiful objects in the world"

(C. Darwin in The Descent of Man 1901: 656).

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

www.oup.com

Cover image: Photograph by C. B. Frith

ISBN 978-0-19-024023-3

9 780190 240233