

"This extraordinary and long-awaited work combines deep authority and scholarship with the authors' extensive field experience and museum expertise. The book increases our knowledge of New Guinea's obscure avifauna and offers a superior modern perspective."

FRANK B. GILL

author of Ornithology

"This is an essential reference for anyone interested in the birds of New Guinea, natural resource policy, and conservation practices."

CHRISTOPHER FILARDI

American Museum of Natural History

PRINCETON
press.princeton.edu

ISBN: 978-0-691-16424-3

9 780691 164243