

This book is primarily intended for undergraduate students and science professionals. Topics covered include properties of enzymes, nomenclature, biological functions, structures and mechanisms, kinetics, inhibition, regulation, mode of actions, and applications. Each topic is self-sufficient explanatory enlighten in simple language with large number of figures, tables and reactions. This book can serve as a ready reference for the study of enzymes.

Wondatir Nigatu Aragaw

Professor Nigatu has obtained PhD in Biological Sciences from University of Warwick (UK) in 2004. Currently he is teaching Virology, Immunology, Enzymology and Parasitology at Kigali Institute of Science and Technology (KIST). He has over twenty years of University teaching and research experience with twenty publications.

9 783843 364621

978-3-8433-6462-1

